

OEA-RETIRED PRESENTS... A DAY TO INSPIRE TO RETIRE

.....

The OEA-Retired 2024 Fall Conference will be a virtual session that anticipates inspiring creativeness in all of us, think about best practices for retirement, and learn from a civil rights activist's journey in the fight for justice.

Join Us on Wednesday, September 25th at 10am-12:30pm to hear the 2022-2024 Ohio Beat Poet Laureate, Sandra Feen; expert advice on retirement from an STRS representative Lynn A. Hoover (Acting Executive Director and Chief Financial Officer); and learn from freedom fighter/ Civil Rights Activist, Charles Black.

All OEA members are invited to join us during this discussion (OEA MEMBERS ONLY EVENT).

Join Us, Wednesday,
September 25th at 10am.

Scan QR code
for more information.

PLEASE CLICK HERE

to register for this event.

CHARLES A. BLACK

Charles A. Black is a living legend of the Civil Rights Movement in Atlanta. A Miami native and Morehouse College alumnus, he served as chairman of the Atlanta Student Movement and was one of just eight students taught at Morehouse by Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

SANDRA FEEN

Sandra Feen, Ohio's Beat Poet Laureate from 2022- 2024, is a poet, educator, and workshop facilitator. Fragile Capacities, inspired by her urban teaching experiences, is the first of her three collections. She co-wrote her forthcoming multi-genre collection, There's a Rock on Martin Avenue, with Cliff Treyens.